

Our Lady and St. Paulinus' Roll of Honour.

On this Remembrance Sunday let us remember those who gave their lives in the course of the two World Wars of the first half of the Twentieth Century.

We remember local men and women affected by the tragedy of conflict in more recent years. We pray for all those bereaved, injured or emotionally traumatised by the fighting and the fear.

As we recall the brave sacrifice of so many,
let us pray fervently for Peace In Our Time.

For the Fallen

A Poem by Robert Laurence Binyon (1869-1943),
Published in The Times newspaper on 21 September 1914.

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill: Death august and royal
Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres.
There is music in the midst of desolation
And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted,
They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables of home;
They have no lot in our labour of the day-time;
They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound,
Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight,
To the innermost heart of their own land they are known
As the stars are known to the Night;

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain,
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.
