MISSIO Mission Boxes A good few people in the parish have a Red Missio Box in the hall or on the mantle piece. Hundreds of pounds are sent off from St. Paulinus and St. Joseph's every few months and others pay by Direct Debit. A magazine details the work of MISSIO. If you want Fr. Jonathan to come to you to pick up your contributions in the Box, please let him know.

MISSIO helps the church be present all over the world and sponsors the training of priests. Mass is offered and the sacraments celebrated in the most remote regions of the planet. Education, primary health care, maternity units, whole hospitals, care for those with special educational or physical needs, end of life and hospice care are all sponsored by the church and MISSIO helps. out. Parish communities help people support each other and stand up for people's rights. Around a church or school a Christian community can flourish. MISSIO supports their growth. Thank you for supporting priests, religious sisters, brothers and Catholics worldwide.

Apostleship of the Sea
Supporting Seafarers Worldwide

Apostleship of the Sea Our oceans and seas are in the news a great deal at the moment as people try to cross them, dive under them, build turbines on them or exploit their mineral wealth. The vast majority of our material trade with other countries is seaborne. Massive cargo vessels bring in the food we eat, many of the cars we drive, the clothes we wear, the flat pack furniture we assemble. We might be about as far from the sea as it is possible to be in England, but we still rely on what is traded over the waters.

The crews who sail between different countries may stay at sea for months at a time and many come from Christian countries where their faith is strong. The Apostleship of the Sea helps provide chaplains who can support those both on shore and on their vessels at harbour. They offer Mass, pray with individuals, offer counsel, even warm clothes as many come from Tropical regions and find English ports a little cool. We need to support them with our prayer and with our cash. Information and Envelopes are available. Thank you.
