And at these times: St. Joseph's after the Tuesday Mass and from 5 pm Saturday.

St. Paulinus, after Mass during the week and on after the 11 am Mass, Sunday.

Intentions Received: Rev. John A Kelly (LD), Nicholas Hart (RIP), Marie Waters, Muriel Lawford, Vicki O'Keefe (B'day An.), Colin Brannan (RIP), Catherine Wright (RIP), Sandra McVicar (RIP), Mary Taylor (A).

PRAYER LIST: Mgr. Michael Kujacz, Rev. Patrick & Cathleen Kelly, Rev. Russel Ashworth, Christopher Sinclair, Patrick Walsh,, Dominic Ramm, Susan O'Donnell, Connie O'Donnell, Delores Mulrennan, Malcolm Wilson, Margaret Brannan.

Direct Debits and Standing Orders make up a significant of income for both parishes. Thank you for your ongoing generosity.

Flea Market: £500 received recently. Amazing. The Flea Market needs items to sell. If you, or you know of a family who is spring cleaning or clearing a house, please mention the flea market to them. The Flea Market really needs more people to volunteer. Can you spare a bit of time, please?

Bereavement Group: So many parishioners have been bereaved recently. To lose a loved one, partner, parent, child or friend can hit hard and sometime lead to loneliness. Would those affected like to meet in a group to help ease the effects of the loss? Please let Fr. Jonathan know.

This is Sunday's Second Reading. Worth a read this season ... Hebrews 5:7-9

He learned to obey and he became the source of eternal salvation

During his life on earth, Christ offered up prayer and entreaty, aloud and in silent tears, to the one who had the power to save him out of death, and he submitted so humbly that his prayer was heard.

Although he was Son, he learnt to obey through suffering; but having been made perfect, he became for all who obey him the source of eternal salvation.
